* SECTIONS SHOULD VOTE SEPARATELY

Capital City Managers in Favor of New Rule.

Declaring themselves strongly in favor of that part of the report of the rules committee which recommends the selec-tion of A and B tearns at the beginning of the season that the sections vote sep-arately on all questions which pertain solely to themselves, the Capital City League held a long meeting at the office of President James A. O'Shea, in the Contury Building yesterday morning, which was attended by all of the managers of last year the Capital City League and other organizations in section A were considerably handicapped by having repconsiderably handicapped by having rep-resentatives of section B vote on ques-tions which pertained solely to section A matters. In the naming of umpires for the games, the selection of grounds, and like matters, Capital City men think sec-tion A was given a raw deal. The league demands a separation of the two sections, and at Saturdays meet-ing this fact will be officially obmuni-cated to the commission.

cated to the commission

Lengthy consideration of the rule recommended by the rules committee, which, if adopted, would har out men who have played amateur ball in the past two years, was one of the most important matters which came up yesterday. The northeast, while on Wednesday Central length of directly converd to the proper of the property of t league is directly opposed to the prop-sition, and if the rule is adopted as re-ommended, the Capital City League will sition, and if the rule is adopted as recommended, the Capital City League will buck the amateur commission and play independently.

"We want to stay with the commission, and are going to do all that is possible to comply with any rules which that body makes," said President James A O'Shea after yesterday's meeting, "but we cannot agree to a rule which bars out all men who have played professional baseball within the last two years."

"In place of the rule submitted the Capital City League surgests one which will permit a player to go away and play for morey and return before June 1 without being barred. After the last of June, if he returns, he will be unable to play for the rest of the season, "outhined Met O'Shea.

"We feel that this is as far as the commission should go at this time."

First Time.

Ithaca, N. Y., March 25.—The members of the Cornell hockey team, which won the intercollegiate championship and went through the entire season without a single defeat, have all been awarded the varsity's letter by the university athelic council, an honor which up to this time has been restricted in the case of minor sport teams to a few specially brilliant players. The hockey "C" was awarded to Capt. Magner, Crasweller, Vincent, Evans, Scheu, Vail, and Haist.

The council also voted the basket-ball "C" to four men who have been playing for several years, Capt. Bennett, Blumenauer, Heath, and Twendell.
